

DOMAINE DES BAUMARD

SAVENNIÈRES TRIE SPÉCIALE 2010

Savennières, France

ABOUT DOMAINE DES BAUMARD

Consistently recognized for producing some of the most extraordinary dry white wines in the Loire and in France, Domaine des Baumard has been under the ownership of the same family for nearly 400 years. Winemaker Florent Baumard runs the estate with meticulous care, crafting extraordinary wines that bely his soft-spoken, gentle manner. Baumard produces a range of styles, though the domaine is most famous for its stunning sweet wines from the storied Quarts de Chaume Grand Cru.

THE WINE

Baumard's Savennières Trie Spéciale bottling is in many ways the apotheosis of the appellation, and is produced only in great years ('89, '90, '95, '97, '00, '10, '14 to date). Exceptionally ripe bunches are hand-harvested in successive passes ('tries') through the estate vineyard, resulting in a concentrated wine of enormous structure and intensity, requiring many years to unwind into a lanolin-textured wine with flavors of stone fruits, spices, and minerals, and great length. One of France's greatest white wines.
