ESTATE

Petrolo is the definition of a cult winery, with an owner and a story that have helped create its legendary status. Though virtually unknown even in the wine world, the Valdarno di Sopra denomination dates back to the days of the Medici family during the Renaissance, and the area has always been renowned for the winemaking potential of the tiny area of Tuscany near Chianti in which it is located. In the last fifteen years, Petrolo has established itself as one of Tuscany's, and Italy's, great wineries and is renowned above all for producing wines with a distinct regional identity.

WINE

Bòggina B brings Burgundy to Tuscany. The wine is made of 100% Trebbiano from vines planted in the 1970s and recently replanted below the Bòggina vineyard using the original clones. Defying the traditional view of Trebbiano as a simple variety not suited to making high-quality, interesting wines, Trebbiano from Valdarno was renowned from the 1300s on for its quality, even being sent to popes in Rome and the courts of Florence. Petrolo used Trebbiano grapes for its Vinsanto for decades, but Luca Sanjust wanted to pay tribute to the whites of Valdarno's past. Bòggina B was also inspired by Luca Sanjust's friendship with Mounir Saouma of the great Burgundian winery Lucien le Moine, who guided Petrolo's team and shared priceless advice during the different phases of production, both in the winery and the cellar.

"The complex perfumes of white pepper, chalk, flint, pear tart, green apples, white chocolate and smoke are stunning. Then comes an incredibly linear texture that's so vertical it could cut your mouth in two. Cutting, sweeping acidity makes an indent in the palate, which it expertly fills with praline, almond and nutmeg undertones. - JS
