The Best Champagne Bottles to Pop This New Years

Like everything else in 2020, New Years Eve is poised to look a little different this year. While we may not be gathering for all night parties or packing into Times Square to watch the ball drop, there is one NYE tradition that you can count on no matter how you're ringing in 2021—champagne. Whether you're looking for an option you can keep pouring up all night long for a select group of friends or one special bottle to splurge on for a more low key celebration, we've found the perfect bottles that are sure to send 2020 out in style.

What better way to get your year off to the right start than by opening a very good year of champagne. This prestige cuvée harvested from 2012 highlights the richness of pinot noir (the blend is approximately 2/3 pinot noir and 1/3 chardonnay) for a particularly complex nose and a long finish that makes it a perfect treat to linger over at a NYE party built for two.

If you've got champagne tastes on a sparkling wine budget, get the most bang for your New Years buck with this brut bottle. The juice is brisk, with a complex fruit and toasted brioche palate that you'd expect to find on a bottle several times its price—in fact, it's a sister brand of Champagne Bollinger.
