

ROCCA DI MONTEGROSSI

CHIANTI CLASSICO GRAN SELEZIONE SAN MARCELLINO

Chianti Classico Gran Selezione, Italy

ABOUT ROCCA DI MONTEGROSSI

Rocca di Montegrossi is located near Monti in Chianti, one of the finest parts of Chianti Classico. Marco Ricasoli Firdolfi, current owner of the estate, is a descendant of Bettino Ricasoli, who played a central role in the history of the Chianti Classico region and laid the foundations for Chianti Classico wine. The winery's forward-thinking philosophies generate sophisticated

THE WINE

Chianti Classico Gran Selezione Vigneto San Marcellino is a wine produced exclusively in great vintages, using the finest grapes selected from the vineyard of the same name that surrounds the Pieve di San Marcellino in Monti in Chianti.

TECHNICAL INFORMATION

VARIETY: 90% Sangiovese, 10% Pugnitello

VINEYARD: This vineyard covers an area of approximately 7 hectares and is characterized by the predominant presence of Sangiovese, of which 1.5 hectares are 50 years old. Alongside Sangiovese, Pugnitello (0.9 hectares), an ancient...

FARMING: Organic

AGING: 24 months in medium-toast Allier oak barriques. Bottled without fining or filtering

ALC. BY VOL.: 14.5%

PRESS

95 WINE & SPIRITS

94 VINOUS

96 WINE SPECTATOR

The 2018 Chianti Classico Gran Selezione Vigneto San Marcellino is stellar. Silky and very much medium in body, the 2018 is a wine more of finesse than power. Dark-toned fruit, coffee, lavender, licorice, dried herbs and a kiss of new oak all grace this exquisite, wonderfully nuanced Gran Selezione. In 2018, the San Marcellino is all restraint and understatement.

-Antonio Galloni, Vinous

STELLAR...ALL RESTRAINT AND UNDERSTATEMENT

-Antonio Galloni