

ROCCA DI MONTEGROSSI

GEREMIA

Toscana IGT, Italy

ABOUT ROCCA DI MONTEGROSSI

Rocca di Montegrossi is located near Monti in Chianti, one of the finest parts of Chianti Classico. Marco Ricasoli Firidolfi, current owner of the estate, is a descendant of Bettino Ricasoli, who played a central role in the history of the Chianti Classico region and laid the foundations for Chianti Classico wine. The winery's forward-thinking philosophies generate sophisticated

THE WINE

In line with the desires of Rocca di Montegrossi's producer, Marco Ricasoli Firidolfi, Geremia wine aims to express the character of Monti in Chianti terroir using Bordeaux grape varieties, with a predominance of Merlot (approximately 70%) and a component of Cabernet Sauvignon (30%).

TECHNICAL INFORMATION

VARIETY: 80% Merlot, 20% Cabernet Sauvignon

VINEYARD: Geologically, the territory of Monti in Chianti is mainly composed of limestone and marlstone that are rich in calcium (Marna Calcareea) and contain a certain amount of clays. Harvest is manual and carried out in three ph...

FARMING: Organic

AGING: 26 months between 60% tonneaux and 40% large format Allier oak, 10% first pass, 30% second pass, 50% third pass, 10% fourth pass

ALC. BY VOL.: 13%

PRESS

96 VINOUS

96 WINE & SPIRITS

92 JAMES SUCKLING

The 2018 Geremia is stellar. A wine of energy and delineation, Geremia is all about persistence more than volume in 2018. Blueberry, blackberry, lavender, licorice and scorched earth abound. In 2018, Geremia is a wine of tension and reserve. It's best days are far off in the future.

-Antonio Galloni, Vinous

TENSION AND RESERVE

-Antonio Galloni