

Forbes

Father's Day Gift Guide 2025: The Best Pink Wine

It's more traditional to gift a rosé wine for Mother's Day, but there are plenty of dads (mine, included!) who prefer pink wines. Rosé all day is even better in June's hotter weather than May, and it's a wine style that's perfect for sipping beside a grill. Here are some fantastic wines to give your dad (but don't tell mine - he needs to be surprised).

E. Guigal Côtes du Rhône Rosé, $19

This Côtes du Rhône Rosé exudes clarity and brilliance, with a fresh and expressive nose reveals red fruits and citrus notes, including raspberry and redcurrant. It's a very well balanced rosé that your father will appreciate.

Juvé & Camps Pinot Noir Rosé NV, $25

From the heart of Spain's Penedès region, Juvé & Camps Pinot Noir Rosé NV is a sparkling Cava made with 100 percent Pinot Noir grapes. Crisp and refreshing, it offers fine bubbles and notes of rose petal, red currant, and wild raspberry. It's actually a delicious pairing with potato chips so open up a bottle with your dad and watch his favorite movie or sports game with it.

Château d'Estoublon Roseblood Rosé, $27

Just a year ago, Château d'Estoublon's Roseblood Rosé has made its debut in the U.S. market. This exquisite rosé boasts a stunning pale and delicate hue of rose water. Its expressive aroma reveals notes of apricot and peony, with just the right touch of minerality. It's a great wine to sip with your dad.