

SANDRONE

SIBI ET PAUCIS LE VIGNE BAROLO 2015

Barolo, Italy

ABOUT SANDRONE

The late Luciano Sandrone was an iconic figure in Barolo, with an extraordinary story of determination. In the bottle, Sandrone's wines straddle the modern and traditional styles of the region: elegant, attractive and easy to appreciate right from their first years in bottle, but with no less power and structure over time than traditional Barolos.

THE WINE

Sibi et Paucis, Latin for "for oneself and for a few," is Sandrone's library selection: a small portion of each vintage held back under optimal cellar conditions until the winery determines it is ready. The seal on the label marks that journey. Barolo Le Vigne Sibi et Paucis is more tannic and structured than its sibling ALESTE, revealing classic Barolo character over time: black cherry, tar, violets, and remarkable freshness and length.

TECHNICAL INFORMATION

VARIETY: 100% Nebbiolo

VINEYARD: A blend of four crus: Vignane, Merli in Novello, Baudana in Serralunga d'Alba, and Villero in Castiglione Falletto, each contributing distinct character to the blend.

WINEMAKING: Vinified separately by vineyard. Gentle warm maceration, then native yeast fermentation in open-top steel tanks over 28 to 30 days.

VINTAGE: Seven weeks of summer heat gave way to a long, cool ripening period. Careful vineyard management produced ripe, generous wines with good freshness and real cellaring potential

AGING: 24 months in 500-liter French oak casks

ALC. BY VOL.: 14.5%

Wine Spectator

"A super-complex and deep wine with aromas of cinnamon, mint, prunes, leather and tobacco. Full-bodied, it shows incredible tension, density and concentration, with velvety tannins, crisp acidity and umami flavors on a super-long aftertaste."
