DE BURIS VALPOLICELLA CLASSICO SUPERIORE 2019

Valpolicella Classico Superiore, Italy

ABOUT TOMMASI

Tommasi has proudly presided over Italy's Veneto region for over 120 years, with wines that are both renowned for their superior quality and consistently regarded as reference points for their respective appellations. As one of the single most influential producers in Italy, the winery is committed to sustainable practices and continues to craft each wine from 100% estate-owned vineyards.

THE WINE

De Buris Valpolicella Superiore is the fourth generation of the Tommasi family's most direct expression of La Groletta, one of the Valpolicella Classica's most storied crus. Where De Buris Amarone Riserva draws on the full depth of time and process, the Valpolicella Superiore captures the vineyard in its purest, most immediate form: attentive winemaking, respectful of the land, and focused entirely on what this particular terroir can offer.

James Suckling

"The 2019 Valpolicella Classico Superiore de Buris is hauntingly dark. It wafts up with a blend of sweet herbs and spices complementing dried black cherries and hints of cedar that emerge over time. More savory than sweet, it coasts across the palate with mineral-infused red and black fruits offset by a twang of sour citrus. This wine displays amazing length and concentration through the long, tension-filled finale as a twang of tart blackberry curls the tongue."
