ABOUT MARINA CVETIĆ

Marina Cvetic is Masciarelli's line of small-production, single-estate wines, named for the woman who has helped lead the winery since 1987. In 1991, Gianni Masciarelli named Montepulciano after his wife, a Serbian-born vintner, made from his best parcels and later grown into a full line. Made in far smaller volumes than the rest of the range, each wine is drawn from a curated set of parcels chosen to explore altitude, soil, and structure, built with complexity and aged to last.

THE WINE

The Trebbiano Riserva Marina Cvetic represents the ultimate expression of one of Abruzzo's historic vines. Like Montepulciano, Trebbiano was once considered a workhorse grape without real potential. This wine changed that view completely, offering an original, full-bodied, and elegant interpretation with its own character. Marina Cvetic wines are known as a "lone voice" for the most demanding and technical experts. Explosive, concentrated golden fruit leads to a rich, floral, and spicy palate. This wine represents a true revolution for Trebbiano and Italian white

"Fermented and aged in French oak with bâtonnage. Powerful scents of hay, lemon peel and a hint of bergamot. Taut acidity, chalky texture on the palate and a long finish – will age well."
